The Mission of the KUUMBA Players

The KUUMBA Players address issues of social conscience through performances by artists from the Washington area. We are a welcoming community theatre based at All Souls Church.

Goals:

- To serve and strengthen the communities of All Souls Church and the DC Metro area by providing opportunities for members and friends to participate in the theatrical experience.
- To illuminate the human experience through theatre that addresses both contemporary issues and universal themes.
- To serve as a welcoming community for people of all walks of life, every race, creed and lifestyle.
- To provide an atmosphere of respect and mutual appreciation among artists.
- To create thought-provoking, enriching and high-quality productions.
