

SEVENTH PRINCIPLE COMMITTEE (GREEN SOULS)

Mission: Helping to transform the people and practices of All Souls Church into a beacon of environmental sustainability and justice.

What We Do To Fulfill Our Mission:

Ongoing Priorities

Live by the philosophy of reduce/reuse/recycle

- Recycling program, since 2001
- Zero Waste lunches, since 2003
- Sales of Fair Trade goods, since 2003
- Recycled goods sales, since 2007

Green Sanctuary Accreditation

Accreditation given to a Church that demonstrates commitment to the Earth and to justice

See flip side for details on how we are working to obtain official "Green Sanctuary" certification

Green Building

Revere the Earth in our sacred building and operations

- Waste reduction program
- Switch to recycled paper
- Use energy-efficient lightbulbs
- Capital Campaign

Spirit & Connections

Nurture Spirit, strengthen relations, build community

- Hikes and socials
- Collaborate with groups at All Souls & beyond

We are excited to continue all of our efforts but need your help to do so.

What is a Green Sanctuary?

An accreditation given to a congregation committed to the Earth and to justice - through all aspects of their Church life.

ASC has been working to gain UU Accreditation as a Green Sanctuary:

An Environmental Audit was completed in 2006, and a 12-point Action Plan (outlined below) is almost finished.

Worship and Celebration

- Annual Earth Day Service
- Environmental justice-themed sermons

Religious Education (RE)

- Record our "Green" curriculum
- Relevant ASC class offerings

Environmental Justice

- Seminars and neighborhood project (Green & Healthy Thanksgiving collection)
- Forum on Socially Responsible Investing

Sustainable Living

- Staff assistance on energy-saving measures
- Environmental audit briefings
- RideShare program
- Green Transport Day
- Green Resolution project
- "Green Living" seminar

The Seventh Principle of Unitarian Universalism: Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Green Souls is a part of All Souls Church, Unitarian
